It is now proposed to erect in this city a monument to the memory of the late Je'ferson Davis to cost not less than $250,000 and the work is to be began as soon as This was the determination reached last night by the committee of the United Confederate Veterans, consisting of one member from each southern State, and the Dayis Monument Association of Richmond, after having been in session nearly mond, after having been in session nearly all day and several hours in the evening.

A meeting of these bedies was called to order in the gentlemen's parlor of the Exchange Hotel yesterday at noon by Lieutenant-General W. L. Cabell, of Texas, chairman of the Committee from the United Confederate Veterans, who explained the object of the conference. Eight out of sixteen States were represented, either in person or by proxy, and among those present were General Cabell, of Texas, Major N. V. Randolph, Judge George L. Christian, Captain W. G. Waller, Mr. John S. Ellett, Mayor J. Taylor Ellyson, and W. D. Chesterman, Esq.

General Calhoun, of Atlanta, stated that he had been appointed treasurer of the association established by the United Confederate Veterans, and as such he had in hand about $1,050. About $3,000 had been subscribed through other sources in the city of Atlanta. He then, in speaking about the location of the monument here, said that matter had been practically settled, as Mrs. Davis desired the memorial to be erected at the capital of the Confederacy. Therefore, he though it useless to discuss the question of location, federacy. Therefore, he thought it use-less to discuss the question of location, and offered a motion that a committee of three be appointed on resolutions. Gene-ral Calhoun, of Georgia; Mr. Ellyson, of Virginia, and Captain Hodson, of Alana, were designated to constitute this Mayor Ellyson said hethought he voiced the sentiment of the Richmond association by stating that it would be very glad to be subordinate to the general committee of the United Confederate Veterans, and felt that in such a unison lay the success of the movement. He referred to the fact that the local organization had previously felt the necessity of the co-operation of the camps, and stated that as it had now practically been assured such aid he thought it would be much easier to raise money and proceed with the work.

The Chair said that it would be necessary for the body to know just exactly what the SUBORDINATE TO THE UNITED VETS.

ity of Richmond would do in this matter. WHAT RICHMOND WILL DO. The Mayor stated that resolutions had been adopted providing for the donation of the site for the monument and a suitable place for the burial of ex-fresident Davis and other members of his family. He said that he did not think there was any doubt that Richmond could raise in round numbers $30,000 for the monument. After some further discussion the meet-ing took a recess until 6 o'clock in the af-

While incidentally talking about the cost of the proposed statue to the memory of Mr. Davis, General Cabell stated that he thought $500,000 or $1,000,000 should be spent on it and that it should be a grand thing, indeed. He said he would nke to see built a shaft so high that the birds could not fly over it. It was the general opinion that it would be doing well to raise $220,000, a little less than the cost of the Washington monument in the Capitol Square. It was estimated that about $10,000 is already in the hands of the various treasurers for this purpose.

WHYREABOUTS OF MES. DAVIS.

It was nearly 3 o'clock hast night when Charman Cabell called the committee to order to hear the report of the Committee on Resolutions. Some informal conversation as to Mrs. Davis's whereabouts took place. General Cabell stated that he had addressed a letter to her at Narragament Pier, asking her to be in Richmond while this meeting was going on, but had been mable to get a response from her. General Cabell stated that he had heard that Mrs. Davis had returned to New York.

Histolistal That as Richmend was the capital of the Contederacy and has been selected by Mrs. Jefferson Davis as the burial-place of her husband, and inasmuch as she has suggested that it is also the most appropriate place for the creation of a monument to his memory, the United Confederate Volerans will co-operate with the Davis Monument Association of Richmond and the Southern Frees Association in the effort to erect the same.

The question of a site was postponed until Tuesday, when another meeting will be held. The committee was in session until nearly midnight.

Just before the meeting closed Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, who reached the city last night and stopped at the Exchange, dropped in and expressed his approval and sanction of the work in which the bodies were engaged.

HEALTH MEASURES AT OLD POINT. A Thorough Inspection of the Reservation-Personal.

Old Point Comport, Va., September 17.—
The very efficient corps of medical gentlemen and their assistants who represent the Marine-Hospital Service at this post are now waiting, Micawber-like, for something to turn up, while at the same time are, no doubt, earnestly hoping that there may be no hurry about it. During the week Surgeon Hatton, of Baltimore, has been transferred to Sandy Hook, where he has been placed in charge of Camp Lowe, while Dr. J. M. Reisanan, of St. Louis, and Dr. R. C. Irving, from Virginia Beach, have reported to Surgeon Catter for duty. The training ship Jamestown was towed down to the Roads on Thursday and anchored at the old quarantine grounds, which are located five miles southwest of the fort and about midway between Sewell's Point and Newport News. Hon. Josiah Patterson Makes a Grand

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

Barstot, Tenn., September 17.—The Hon. Josiah Patterson, of Memphis, the "Bronze Lion of the Tennessee Democracy," had a brilliant reception here tonight. He addressed a large audience of ladies and gentlemen in Market Hall, making such a speech as only Patterson can make. He was introduced by Hon. H. G. Peters, and clearly and logically presented the principles of Democracy in an eloquent address of two hours. He contrasted the condition of equal and general prosperity before the war under the Democratic rale and the growth of plutocracy since the war under Republican rule. His arraignment of the Republican party as the party of trusts and monopolies and force bills and plutocracy was so plain that even the most ignorant could understand it.

Colonel Patterson spoke at Blountville to-day before a large crowd, and drove another hall in the coffin of the political fusion corpse, which the Democrats of Sullivan county will bury with appropriate ceremonies on the 8th of November.

Many Republicans were present at the meeting to-night and listened to the sledge-hammer arguments of Colonel Patterson with the closest attention. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]
